AFFIDAVIT IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO REMAND

STATE OF NEW YORK)
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

Olivia M. Gross, an attorney duly admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York hereby affirms the following upon information and belief and pursuant to the penalties of perjury as follows:

1. I am a member of the firm of NEWMAN FITCH ALTHEIM MYERS, P.C., attorneys for the defendants WESLEY SMITH DALLAS a/h/a WESLEY SMITH DALLAS, WESLEY SMITH DALLAS d/b/a DALLAS TRUCKING [hereafter "W.S. DALLAS"], and HOMER CLINTON DORRIS s/h/a CLINTON DORRIS, CLINTON DORRIS a/k/a HOMER CLINTON DORRIS, and CLINTON DORRIS d/b/a EVERY SAVINGS POSSIBLE [hereafter "DORRIS"]. As such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances related herein based upon a review of the file maintained by this office.

2. I submit this affidavit in opposition to plaintiff's motion to remand this matter from the United States District Court to the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Bronx. The documents that are relevant and pertinent to this Court's determination of the present motion to remand are annexed hereto as:

- i) Plaintiff's Summons and Complaint - Exhibit "A"
- ii) Plaintiff's Affidavit of Service for Summons and Complaint - Exhibit "B"
- iii) Defendants' Notice of Removal - Exhibit "C"
- iv) Defendants' Answer - Exhibit "D"
- v) W.S. DALLAS's Notice – Filing of Bankruptcy Including Creditor with Provision of "Automatic Stay" of Bankruptcy Sec. 361 and 362 - Exhibit "E"

COUNTER-STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

3. Plaintiff commenced the present action on or about October 12, 2007, by filing a summons and complaint in New York State Supreme Court. A copy of the summons and complaint is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A".

4. The summons and complaint was served on the defendants on December 7, 2007, through the New York Secretary of State, pursuant to the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law § 253. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" is a copy of the plaintiff's affidavit of service for the summons and complaint.

5. On January 3, 2008, a Notice of Removal under 28 U.S.C. § 1446 was filed with this District Court on behalf of the defendants herein. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "C" is a copy of the Notice of Removal.

6. Shortly thereafter, on January 7, 2008, an answer to plaintiff's complaint was filed jointly on behalf of the co-defendants W.S. DALLAS and DORRIS. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "D" is a copy of the defendants' answer.

7. After filing the answer jointly on behalf of all co-defendants on January 7, 2008, this affiant, as counsel for defendants herein, subsequently learned for the first time that, in fact, defendant W.S. DALLAS had already filed for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy on November 16, 2007, prior to the date he was served with plaintiff's summons and complaint. Such filing was done by W.S. DALLAS himself, pro se, before the law firm of this affiant was retained to represent W.S. DALLAS in this action. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "E" is a copy of a document, entitled "Notice – Filing of Bankruptcy Including Creditor with Provision of 'Automatic Stay' of bankruptcy Sec. 361 and 362" that was sent to plaintiff's counsel herein by W.S. DALLAS himself. This Notice advises, in pertinent parts, that W.S. DALLAS had filed a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Petition [Case # 307-08541] on November 16, 2007 in Middle District of Tennessee, Nashville, TN 37203.

SUMMARY OF LEGAL ARGUMENT IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO REMAND

8. As will be discussed further below, plaintiff's motion to remand must be denied, as a matter of law. Plaintiff has essentially set forth two separate arguments in support of his contention that the defendants' notice of removal was defective.

9. First of all, plaintiff contends that defendants' notice of removal was untimely served because it supposedly was served more than thirty (30) days after the summons and complaint was received by defendant W.S. DALLAS. However, as explained below, plaintiff did not serve his summons and complaint until after W.S. DALLAS had already filed a Petition for Bankruptcy pursuant to Chapter 7 of the US Bankruptcy Code.

10. Because the November 16, 2007 Bankruptcy filing by W.S. DALLAS immediately triggered the automatic stay provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code [see 11 USC § 362[a][1]], plaintiff's subsequent service of process upon the Bankruptcy Petitioner , W.S. DALLAS, was void ab initio. As a result, the document that plaintiff has annexed to his motion papers as Exhibit "A", which plaintiff has mischaracterized as a 'pro se answer', is a nullity, without any effect on the current proceedings. Consequently, this Court's determination as to the timeliness of defendants' filing of their Notice of Removal is limited to a consideration of whether that Notice was filed within thirty (30) days from the receipt of plaintiff's summons and complaint by defendant DORRIS [the only defendant over whom the New York State Court has personal jurisdiction] and not measured from the receipt of the invalid summons and complaint by co-defendant W.S. DALLAS.

11. Therefore, because plaintiff served his summons and complaint upon defendant DORRIS no earlier than December 7, 2007, and the Notice of Removal was filed on January 3, 2008, the filing was accomplished within the statutory thirty-day period and, thus, was timely, as a matter of law.

12. As a second basis for his present motion to remand, plaintiff further claims that the defendants' Notice of Removal is defective because one defendant, DORRIS, supposedly did not properly obtain the consent of his co-defendant, W.S. DALLAS to removal of this action to Federal Court. According to plaintiff's argument, because there is allegedly no indication that the removal was made or consented to by the co-defendant [W.S. DALLAS] and/or his bankruptcy trustee, there is no 'unanimity' among the defendants and, therefore, this case must be remanded.

13. Yet, as noted above, on December 7, 2007, when plaintiff allegedly served his summons and complaint upon defendant W.S. DALLAS, that defendant had already filed his petition for bankruptcy on November 16, 2007. See Exhibit "B" [Affidavit of Service] and Exhibit

“E” [Notice – Filing of Bankruptcy]. Thus, because the automatic stay triggered by that filing had the effect of voiding the commencement of the action [at least as against the debtor, W.S. DALLAS], when defendant DORRIS served and filed his Notice of Removal, he was the only defendant in this action at that time [and, to date, remains as the only existing defendant herein because the automatic stay is still in effect]. Accordingly, because defendant DORRIS was the only proper defendant in this action at the time that he filed his Notice of Removal, there was no requirement that he obtain consent from the other named defendant [who was never properly served with the summons and complaint] or from the trustee from the bankruptcy proceeding. Therefore, plaintiff’s motion to remand must be denied, as a matter of law.

LEGAL ARGUMENT IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO REMAND

14. Section 1441(a) of title 28 of the United States Code provides that “any civil action brought in state court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed . . . to the district court.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a). A case is removable when the initial pleading enables the defendant to intelligently ascertain removability from the face of such pleading, so that in its petition for removal, the defendant can make a short and plain statement of the grounds for removal as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a). A pleading enables a defendant to intelligently ascertain removability when it provides the necessary facts to support the removal petition. Whitaker v. American Telecasting, Inc., 261 F.3d 196, 205-206 (2^d Cir., 2001)

15. A defendant who is served with a pleading that meets these criteria must file its notice for removal within thirty days. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b). Days are counted in accordance with Rule 6(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 6(a) (providing that Rule 6 applies “in computing any period of time prescribed . . . by any applicable statute.”).

16. Courts differ as to when the thirty-day removal period begins to run where there are multiple defendants who are not served simultaneously, and the last served defendant seeks removal. See Varela v. Flintlock Constr., Inc., 148 F.Supp.2d 297, 299 (S.D.N.Y., 2001) (collecting cases, and stating that the first-served defendant rule is the “majority” rule in this district). Some courts follow the “first-served defendant rule,” which interprets the thirty-day provision of section 1446 to mean that no defendant may seek removal later than thirty days from when the first defendant was served. Id. Other courts have adopted the “removing defendant” rule, which provides that each “defendant has 30 days from the date of service [of the complaint upon that defendant] to remove a case to federal district court.” See Fernandez v. Hale Trailer Brake & Wheel, 332 F.Supp.2d 621, 623-24 (S.D.N.Y., 2004) (applying the last-served defendant rule).

17. The Second Circuit has never ruled on this question. See Bashford v. Crown Fin. Group, No. 05 Civ. 2217, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15811, at *11 (S.D.N.Y., July 27, 2005). However, by application of either rule to the particular circumstances presented herein, it is now evident that the Notice of Removal was timely filed by defendant DORRIS.

18. This is so because it has been held that, where there are multiple defendants, “all named defendants over whom the state court has acquired jurisdiction must join in the removal petition for removal to be proper.” See Bashford v. Crown Fin. Group, supra, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15811, at *11. (emphasis added)

19. In the present matter, the New York State Court has never acquired personal jurisdiction over DORRIS’s named co-defendant, W.S. DALLAS. As explained above, this is because, at the time that the summons and complaint was first served by plaintiff upon W.S. DALLAS, he had already filed his petition for bankruptcy and, therefore, such service of process was ineffective due to the triggering of the automatic bankruptcy stay.

Automatic Stay

20. The filing of a bankruptcy petition operates as a stay applicable to all entities regarding the commencement or continuation of judicial proceedings against the debtor. In that regard, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1) provides that:

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, a petition filed under section 301, 302, or 303 of this title, or an application filed under section 5(a)(3) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970, operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of-
 - (1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title.

21. It is said that the protections of the stay are automatic and mandatory with the filing of the bankruptcy petition. Elder-Beerman Stores Corp. v. Thomasville Furniture Indus. Inc. (In re Elder-Beerman Stores Corp.), 195 B.R. 1019, 1023 (Bankr.S.D.Ohio 1996). Thus, it has been held that the commencement or continuation of a judicial action or proceeding “clearly” is subject to the automatic stay of section 362. Rexnord Holdings, Inc. v. Bidermann, 21 F.3d 522 (2d Cir., 1994)

22. The scope of the automatic stay is broad [see AP Indus., Inc. v. SN Phelps & Co. (In re AP Indus., Inc.), 117 B.R. 789, 798 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1990) (“Congress intended that the scope of the automatic stay be broad in order to effectuate its protective purposes on behalf of both debtors and creditors”)], and is a fundamental debtor protection [e.g., Eastern Refractories Co. Inc. v. Forty Eight Insulations Inc., 157 F.3d 169, 172 (2d Cir.1998) (citing legislative sources)], that not only protects debtors but protects creditors as well. See, e.g., Keene Corp. v. Coleman (In re Keene Corp.), 164 B.R. 844, 849 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1994).

23. It has been observed that:

The automatic stay promote[s] two principal purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. First, the automatic stay provides the debtor with a breathing spell from ... creditors. [Second,] the automatic stay allows the bankruptcy court to centralize all disputes concerning property of the debtor's estate in the bankruptcy court so that reorganization can proceed efficiently, unimpeded by uncoordinated proceedings in other arenas.

Shugrue v. Air Line Pilots Ass'n, Int'l (In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc.), 922 F.2d 984, 989 (2d Cir.1990) (internal citations and quotation marks omitted).

CONCLUSION

24. On a motion to remand, "the defendant bears the burden of demonstrating the propriety of the removal." Cal. Pub. Employee's Ret. Sys. v. WorldCom, Inc., 368 F.3d 86, 100 (2d Cir.2004) (quoting Grimo v. Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Vt., 34 F.3d 148, 151 (2d Cir.1994)).

25. In the present matter, the cover page of the defendants' Notice of Removal [See Exhibit "C"] bears a stamp that confirms that it was received for filing in the U.S.D.C., S.D.N.Y. Cashiers' Office on January 3, 2008. The Notice also clearly states:

- a) that the District Court has original subject-matter jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the claims of plaintiff JUAN SANCHEZ – both now and when it was started in New York State Supreme Court- are between citizens of different states and, upon information and belief, the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of $75,000 exclusive of interest and costs;
- b) that diversity is set forth in plaintiff's own pleadings in that plaintiff alleges he is a resident of the County of Bronx, State of New York, and that the defendants, WS DALLAS and DORRIS, were (and are) residents of the State of Tennessee; and
- c) that, as such, the District Court has diversity jurisdiction over the subject matter of this civil action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 and that this civil action may be removed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446.

26. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" is a copy of the affidavit of service filed by plaintiff in New York State Supreme Court in connection with his service of the summons and complaint upon defendant DORRIS. This affidavit unambiguously states that service of the pleadings was not effectuated on that defendant until December 7, 2007 through New York's Secretary of State.

27. Accordingly, it is evident that:

1) Plaintiff's service of process upon defendant W.S. DALLAS, on or about December 7, 2007, was void ab initio because it occurred subsequent to the automatic stay that was triggered on November 16, 2007 when W.S. DALLAS filed his petition for bankruptcy in the Middle District Court of Tennessee, Nashville, TN 37203 [case No. 307-08541] [See Exhibit "E"];

2) The Notice of Removal that was served on behalf of the defendant DORRIS was filed with this Court on January 3, 2008 which was within his statutory thirty-day period provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a) [See Exhibit "C"];

3) Since plaintiff has not yet properly effectuated service of process upon defendant W.S. DALLAS in this action due to the effect of the automatic stay provision of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, co-defendant DORRIS did not need the consent of W.S. DALLAS at the time he filed the Notice of Removal in this action; and,

4) Therefore, plaintiff's contention that the Notice of Removal was untimely and/or otherwise improperly filed on behalf of defendant DORRIS is incorrect, as a matter of law.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that an order be issued denying the motion to remand and furthermore scheduling an initial conference before Judge Miriam Golden Cedarbaum so that discovery proceedings may go forward, and for such other and further relief as to this court deems just and proper.

plaintiff's vehicle; in failing to be alert; in falling asleep at the wheel; in failing to maintain the motor vehicle in good operating condition; in operating the motor vehicle while in a dangerous and defective condition, despite actual and constructive notice thereof; in failing to properly hire and train their employees in the maintenance and operation of the vehicle; in operating the motor vehicle in an unsafe manner given the existing weather and road conditions; and in failing to maintain the motor vehicle in a single lane of traffic.

25. That the aforesaid occurrence and the injuries resulting to the plaintiff therefrom, were caused solely and wholly as a result of the negligence of the defendants, without any negligence on the part of the plaintiff contributing thereto.

26. That the plaintiff has sustained a serious injury as defined in Section 5102(d) of the Insurance Law of the State of New York, and economic loss greater than basic economic loss as defined in Section 5102(a) of the Insurance Law of the State of New York.

27. That this action falls within one or more of the exceptions set forth in CPLR 5.1602.

28. That solely by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiff sustained personal injuries to and about his head, limbs, spine and body; became sick, sore, lame and disabled; suffered, and still suffers and will continue to suffer for sometime to come; great mental and physical pain, mental anguish and bodily injuries; that plaintiff has been informed and verily believes that future suffering will exist and will be permanent with permanent pain, discomfort, inconvenience and other symptoms, signs and effects.

29. That solely by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiff was obliged to undergo medical care and treatment and will be obliged to undergo further care and treatment in the future.

30. That solely by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiff was unable to attend to his usual duties and occupation for sometime; upon information and belief the plaintiff will be unable to do so or be limited from doing so permanently or for sometime in the future.

31. That solely by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiff has sustained damage to his property.

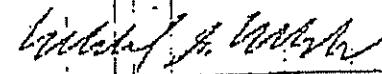

32. That solely by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiff has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts lower than the Supreme Court.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, JUAN SANCHEZ, demands judgment against the defendants in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts lower than the Supreme Court, together with interest and the costs and disbursements of this action.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

TO THE JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND TO PLAINTIFF:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendants hereby file their Notice of Removal under 28 U.S.C. §1446 to effect removal of this matter which was commenced in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of the Bronx, under Index No. 301797/07. Removal is proper for the following reasons:

1. On October 12, 2007, Plaintiff filed this action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of the Bronx, under Index No. 301797/07. Plaintiff's counsel has provided an affidavit of service alleging that service of plaintiff's summons and complaint was made upon one or more of the defendants through New York's Secretary of State on December 7, 2007. Although the defendants did not receive those pleadings until weeks thereafter, even calculating from that alleged date of service, this Notice of Removal is being served and filed in less than thirty days since such service.

2. This court has original subject-matter jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1), because the claims of JUAN SANCHEZ—both now and when it was started in state court—are between citizens of different states and, upon information and belief, the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000 exclusive of interest and costs.

3. Diversity is set forth in plaintiff's own pleadings. Plaintiff alleges that he is a resident of the County of the Bronx. Upon information and belief, defendants Wesley Smith Dallas and Homer Clinton Dorris were (and are) residents of the State of Tennessee. As such, this court has diversity jurisdiction over the subject matter of this civil action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 and this civil action may be removed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of all pleadings and process filed in this action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of the Bronx, under Index No. 301797/07. A notice of filing of this Notice of Removal is being concurrently filed with the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of the Bronx.

WHEREFORE, defendants pray that this civil action be removed to this Court from the Supreme Court of New York, County of the Bronx.

ANSWER TO SUMMONS AND VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Defendants Wesley Smith Dallas s/h/a Wesley Smith Dallas, Wesley Smith Dallas d/b/a Dallas Trucking, and Homer Clinton Dorris s/h/a Clinton Dorris, Clinton Dorris a/k/a Homer Clinton Dorris, and Clinton Dorris d/b/a Every Savings Possible by their attorneys, Newman Fitch Altheim Myers, P.C., as and for their answer to plaintiff's verified complaint, allege upon information and belief as follows:

FIRST: Deny having knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations contained in paragraphs "1", "3", "4", "5", "6", "7", "8", "9", "10", "11", "12", "13", "20", "21", "22", "23", "26" and "27" of plaintiff's verified complaint.

SECOND: Admit each and every allegation contained in paragraph "2" of plaintiff's verified complaint.

THIRD: Deny having knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations contained in paragraphs "14", "15", "16", "17", "18" and "19" of plaintiff's verified complaint, except to admit that Wesley Smith Dallas operated a vehicle with the permission and consent of the owner.

FOURTH: Deny each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "24", "25", "28", "29", "30", "31" and "32" of plaintiffs' verified complaint.

AS AND FOR A FIRST, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

FIFTH: Plaintiff lacks personal jurisdiction over defendant Homer Clinton Dallas s/h/a Clinton Doris, Clinton Dorris a/k/a Homer Clinton Dorris, and Clinton Dorris d/b/a Every Savings Possible for failure to effectuate proper service.

AS AND FOR A SECOND, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SIXTH: Plaintiff's action against Wesley Smith Dallas s/h/a Wesley Smith Dallas, Wesley Smith Dallas d/b/a Dallas Trucking is stayed and/or barred by the provisions of the applicable Bankruptcy statutes in light of Mr. Dallas' filing of a Chapter 7 proceeding on or about November 16, 2007.

AS AND FOR A THIRD, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SEVENTH: The plaintiff causes of action is barred by the Insurance Law §§ 5102 and 5104 in that the plaintiff and the answering defendants are "covered persons" and Insurance Law § 5104 states that in any action by or on behalf of a "covered person" for personal injuries arising out of negligence in the use or operation of a motor vehicle in this state, there shall be no right to recovery for a non-economic loss, except in the case of "serious injury" or economic loss greater than basis economic loss as defined in said Insurance Law.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

EIGHTH: That in the event of any judgment or verdict on behalf of the plaintiff, these defendants are entitled to a set-off or verdict with respect to the amounts of any payments made to the plaintiff for medical and other expenses prior thereto pursuant to § 4545 of the CPLR.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

NINTH: If the injuries and damages were sustained by the plaintiff at the time and place, and in the manner alleged in the complaint, such damages and injuries are attributable, in whole or in part, to the comparative negligence and culpable conduct of the plaintiff, and if any damages are recoverable against the defendants the amount of such damages shall be diminished in proportion which the comparative negligence and culpable conduct attributable to the plaintiff bears to the culpable conduct which caused the damages.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

TENTH: Upon information and belief, the liability for the subject incident may have already been determined, in part or in whole, in a prior proceeding and the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel may therefore apply.

AS AND FOR A NINTH, SEPARATE AND COMPLETE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

THIRTEENTH: Plaintiff's action is barred by the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, these answering defendants Wesley Smith Dallas s/h/a Wesley Smith Dallas, Wesley Smith Dallas d/b/a Dallas Trucking and Homer Clinton Dorris s/h/a

Clinton Dorris, Clinton Dorris a/k/a Homer Clinton Dorris, and Clinton Dorris d/b/a Every Savings Possible demand judgment dismissing the plaintiff's verified complaint, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
